

Recognition Of FAIB Accreditation In The UK

The First Aid Industry Body (FAIB) Approve, Monitor and Regulate its Training Providers and Trainers/Assessors. Consequently, the First Aid certificates that are issued under FAIB are recognised, acknowledged and accepted by the Health and Safety Executive (HSE) and the Department for Education (DfE).

The Inspectors within HSE, DfE and OFSTED accept FAIB First Aid certificates as Equivalent to those First Aid certificates issued by an Awarding Body (under Ofqual/SQA/Qualification Wales/Northern Ireland Council for the Curriculum Examinations and Assessment) and certificates issued by the Voluntary Aided Societies (St John Ambulance, the British Red Cross and St Andrews Ambulance Association).

Due Diligence

FAIB provides Due Diligence on behalf of its Training Providers as agreed by HSE Minister Mark Hoban M.P. on 1st July 2013 so that Employers can be assured of the competence of any FAIB Training Provider or FAIB Trainer/Assessor.

Quality Management System of FAIB (ISO 9001:2015)

The Quality Management system at the First Aid Industry Body (FAIB) has achieved ISO 9001 (2015) for the Approval and Monitoring of Training Providers and Trainers/Assessors.
